LIVING IN THE FACE OF DEATH WITH EYES ON ANOTHER GOAL

1. Has anything happened recently, or have you heard any news, that reminded you of your own mortality? If so, what was it?

2. How did you feel?

3. Read 2 Corinthians 5:1-10. Although Paul seems to feel the weight of his mortality keenly, he is still "of good courage" (v. 6, ESV). Why?

4. For Paul, everything about life and death is framed with reference to one goal. How does he state that goal here?

5. Is there one goal that controls what you choose, think, feel, and do?

6. Would you like to keep the current answer to question 5? Or change in it?

7. If you want to change it, how does 2 Corinthians 5:1-10 relate?
